

Investigations on Origin of Hadeeth Collectors

By Irshad Mahmood – Director, Siraat-al-Mustaqeem Dawah Centre

Three out of Four Khalifa were martyred / killed by Hypocrites. Ummah is widely divided and still not ready to research / investigation on what happened to this Ummah and how it got deviated and are still being wiped out one after another for centuries. There is no doubt on the Quraan and it is fully protected by Allah, BUT We MUST have to investigate on everything from the beginning of the birth of Prophet Muhammad (Peace-Be-Upon-Him). Here I would like to highlight on Origin of Hadeeth Collectors (Muhaddith). Not a single Muhaddith were born or ever lived in Makkah or Madina of Hijaz (present day Saudi Arabia). Hypocrites are like Cancers among Muslims and they MUST need to be exposed. We MUST need to verify all Hadeeth and accept those Hadeeth which are truly according to the Quraan.

http://www.global-right-path.com/Ummah-Reformer/MR_Hadeeth_Collectors_Origin_Map.jpg

1. AHMAD (Ibn Hanbal):

Ahmad bin Muhammad bin Hanbal Abu Abd Allah al-Shaybani (164–241 A.H.), was a Persian Islamic scholar.

Born: Rabi-ul-I, 164 A.H./November, 780 in Baghdad, Iraq.

Died: 12 Rabi-ul-I, 241 A.H./2 August, 855 in Baghdad, Iraq.

He recorded around 4,376 Hadeeth

2. AL-BUKHARI, Muhammad bin Ismail:

Abu Abd Allsh Muhammad bin Ismsil ibn Ibrahim ibn al-Mughirah ibn Bardizbah al-Jufi al-Bukhari (194 A.H.), was a Persian Islamic scholar. He recorded 7,397 Hadeeth, while evaluated 600,000 Hadeeth

Born: 19 July 810 C.E., 13th Shawwal 194 A.H., Bukhara, Transoxiana (in present-day Uzbekistan)

Died: 1 September 870 (aged 60) C.E., 1 Shawwal 256 A.H., Khartank, near Samarqand.

3. MUSLIM bin Hajjaj:

Abu al-Husayn Asakir ad-Din Muslim ibn al-Hajjaj ibn Muslim ibn Ward ibn Kawshadh al-Qushayri an-Naysaburi was born in 204 A.H. in the city of Nishapur near the city of Mashhad in present Iran, was a Persian Islamic scholar.

Born: after 815, 204 A.H., Nishapur, Khorasan, (in present-day Iran).

He recorded 4,000 Hadeeth

Died: May 875, Resting place Nasarabad, (a suburb of Nishapur).

While evaluated 300,000 Hadeeth

4. ABU DAUD, Sulaiman bin Al-Ashath:

Abu Dawud Sulayman ibn al-Ashath al-Azdi as-Sijistani (202 A.H.), was a Persian Islamic scholar.

Born: 817–18 CE, 202 A.H., Sigistan, a famous city in Khorasan, (in present-day Iran).

Died: 889 CE, Basra.

He recorded 4,800 Hadeeth, while evaluated 500,000 Hadeeth

5. AT-TIRMIDHEE, Abu Iesa Muhammad bin Iesa:

Abu Isa Muhammad ibn Iesa as-Sulami ad-Darir al-Bughi at-Tirmidhi was born in 209 A.H. in a town called Tirmiz in Uzbekistan near the northern border of Afghanistan, was a Persian Islamic scholar.

Born: 824/ 209 A.H., Termez, now Surxondaryo Region, Uzbekistan.

He recorded 3,956 Hadeeth

Died: 9 October 892/ 13 Rajab 279 A.H. (aged 68), Termez, now Surxondaryo Region, Uzbekistan.

6. AN-NASAI, Abu Abdur-Rahman Ahmad bin Shuaib:

Abu Abdur-Rahman, Ahmad bin Ali bin Shuaib bin Ali Al-Hafiz was born in 215 A.H. in Nisa, a city in Khurasan, was a Persian Islamic scholar.

Born: 214 AH (c. 829 CE), Nasa, present-day Turkmenistan.

Died: 303 AH (915 CE).

He recorded 5,270 Hadeeth

7. IBN MAJAH, Muhammad bin Yazid:

Abu Abdillah Muhammad ibn Yazid Ibn Majah al-Rabi al-Qazwini (207 A.H.) commonly known as Ibn Majah, was a Persian Islamic scholar.

Born: 824 CE, 207 A.H. Qazvin.

Died: 887 (or 889) CE.

He recorded 4,000 Hadeeth

Conclusion: Traveling widely throughout the Abbasid Caliphate and collecting 600,000 Hadeeth in 20 years NON stop, around 30,000 hadith per year, 2,500 hadith per month, 83 hadith per day which includes weekends was humanly impossible, since they didn't have any internets etc., nor have space crafts to travel and don't have even Buraq to travel throughout the Abbasi Caliphate and learned from 1000 scholars. When disbelievers of ancient Persian Empire saw huge number of Persians reverting to Islaam, they themselves joined Muslims SECRETLY and later succeeded in deviating vast majority of Muslims from the Quraan by bombarding with many fabricated Hadeeth. Today you see majority of Muslims are not practicing the Quraan in spirit and are facing consequences.

Read Al-Quraan, the Miracle of Miracles and free from contradictions and errors

<http://global-right-path.webs.com> <http://global-right-path.blogspot.com> <http://www.global-right-path.com>

Email to mail+subscribe@globalrightpath.com to subscribe