Lessons in Maulana Abul Kalam Azad's Speech

Great lessons for Muslims to Unite in Maulana Abul Kalam Azad's Historic Speeches for those who can think of (i.e. Muslim Think Tanks). Muslims are widely divided in India, Pakistan and Bangladesh, otherwise they could be at least sit in opposition in United India (Maha Bharat) and may have a noticeable voice at national level in India. Similar rules apply to all Muslims Countries to take lessons and correct themselves by re-uniting and re-building Muslim Ummah. Disunity weakens power/strength and anyone may finish you and you may become history (Ref: Al_Quraan_008.046).

Overview of Maulana Abul Kalam Azad's speech in 1948 at Jama Masjid Delhi, India:

My dear brothers today you are leaving our country, did u ever think what will be the outcome of this, if you go away the Muslims in India will become weak.

He says "Listen to me carefully, Hindu can differ with your religion but they can't differ within your clans, but in Pakistan you will face the difference of the clan (khoum)".

He also said "What makes me more sad is that some people have mixed with British and made the istaymaiyaath (togetherness) of Muslims weak".

Now my dear Muslim brothers we have only one thing with us, and that is Islam, we have saved Islam, the sun of Islam will never go down in India.

He said "that group which can't save themselves, even the law can't save them."

Pakistan is formed by those leaders who never actively took part in independence except for personal use and they have implemented thoughts of British of dividing Muslims.

Now the damage has been done, the Muslims of the both countries aren't going to save each other until they are prone to politics and weakness.

See the difference line is based on Hindus and Muslims, and now in Pakistan people think they are Muslims, so now it has become much more difficult to help each other.

He said "these two countries will now focus on military and there will not be any development of the society".

He further said:

- I called you, you cut my tongue
- I raised my hands and you have cut my hands
- I wanted to move ahead and you cut my legs
- I wanted to bring a change and you have broken my backbone

(after 24 minutes, it's a bit clear) All those who have taken the prestigious name of Hijrath for going away please think. Try to think using your brain. Then see where are you going and why are you going and see this Masjid of Delhi is asking you a question, lift your eyes and see, this tombs of Shahjahan Masjid are asking you where you have lost your history. The places of elders are asking you, with whom your leaving yous, the echo of Allahu Akbar of azan is asking you, on whose mercy your leaving us. These are saying O people who are going, I fear you may forget yourself afterwards. O people who are going away listen to me, I fear you people may kill yourself. O people who are running away listen to this also, I fear it may happen that it may not be possible for you to save your own Emaan.

Today you have been filled with fear, today in Delhi lines are drawn with your blood. My friends fill yourself with basic understanding, don't fear with these things. The pain the enemy feels when triggering a gun, a Muslim will not even feel. 10 % of that much pain while dying. Cowardness and Muslims can't live at one place. Neither cheating nor any fear can make a Muslim feared. Don't fear seeing the people going away, today they have left your hand, there is nothing to be surprised in that.

And listen after 28 minutes, he calls Muslims not to fear.

Presently Muslim Ummah is facing Great Disasters which needs immediate attention. We must educate Muslim Ummah to Save Muslim World from Worst Disasters.
