

Introduction – Irshad Mahmood

Director, Global Right Path

My initial Islaamic Education at home was under Barelvi sect. Later during my teenage years, I got influenced by Deubandi sect and started following that for a long time. In 1987 I inspired in my mind to offer myself to Allah 100%, since then I started looking for the Right Path which is truly for Allah alone. In mid 1990s I started getting information about the Wahhabi/Ahle-Hadeeth and a few others and got confused about sects, and came out of sectarianism and decided to follow the Quraan and those Really Authentic Hadeeth which do not contradict the Quraan in title as well as its contents in full. I call myself Muslim and I am just a Muslim and free from any sects. I believe in Allah (One True God) alone and his Prophet/Messenger Muhammad (pbuh) the last and final Prophet/Messenger and invite others towards Muslims Unity which is free from any sects, since those who divide their religion (Islaam) have no part in it, (Ref: Al_Quraan_006.159).

In 1988 I watched few video Debates of Sheikh Ahmed Deedat, got influneds from him and then I started reading translation of the Quraan. In 1990s I started reading Dr. Israr Ahmed's books for better understanding of Deen. Since 2000 I am actively on social media and so far have written over 800 articles. My two of major books are Siraat-al-Mustaqeem and Reformer for Ummat-elbrahim. I am on FaceBook, Google Groups, Yahoo Groups and Twitter.
