

Anger Management

NO Human is Perfect. If you try to find one, you will be left alone.

Pointing fingers on others on any issue in a polite friendly manner is fine and MUST be appreciated, BUT also keep in your mind, you are also human and you could be wrong as well as past, present and future scholars.

Only and only the Quraan is Perfectly Authentic and Free from any Contradictions or Errors, WHILE all other literatures which include articles, books and other reading or listening or watching materials etc. are NOT free from any Contradictions or Errors and are NOT Perfect. Don't get angry on others.
