4 Authentic Hadiths About The Mahdi

M. Fouzia

10 August, 2019

The arrival of Mahdi bothers me a lot. Reading about him, I discovered that he will be born in this secular world and he will emerge in the time of chaos and trouble. So I asked myself, “Aren’t we living in his time? And will the world be more chaotic than this time?”

I imagine myself if he comes in this era how can I recognize him? And how would I react? How can I follow him?

I closely examined the personality of Mahdi and the events that will happen in his era. The many hadiths that I read showed me that the emergence of the Mahdi is a fact that should not be denied.

Towards the end of this life, the world will be in chaos; tyranny, oppression and injustice will prevail. According to many authentic hadiths, the Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) informed us that in this time that the Mahdi will take his role as a just ruler who will fill the earth with justice as it has been filled with oppression.

When the Mahdi emerges, Muslims are required to follow his footsteps.

We find the Mahdi mentioned in many hadiths of the Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him). Some are ranged between being fabricated, weak, sound, and authentic; the very sound and authentic hadiths are very few.

4 Authentic Hadiths

I searched for those authentic hadiths and I found the following:

1- Abu Nadra reported:

“We were in the company of Jabir b. ‘Abdullah that he said it may happen that the people of Iraq may not send their qafiz and dirhams (their measures of food stuff and their money).

We said: Who would be responsible for it?

He said: The non-Arabs would prevent them.

He again said: There is the possibility that the people of Syria may not send their dinars and mudds.

We said: Who would be responsible for it?

He said this prevention would be made by the Romans. He (Jabir b. Abdullah) kept quiet for a while and then reported Allah’s Messenger having said:

There would be a caliph in the last (period) of my Ummah who would freely give handfuls of wealth to the people without counting it.

I said to Abu Nadra and Abu al-‘Ala: Do you mean ‘Umar ibn ‘Abd al-Aziz?

They said: No (he would be Imam Mahdi). (Muslim)

2- Ali Ibn Abi Talib quoted the Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) as saying:

Al-Mahdi is one of us, the clan of the Prophet (peace and blessings be upon him). Allah will reform him in one night. (Ibn Majah)

3- Al-Mahdi is from my Ummah; he will be born and live to rule five or seven or nine years. (If) one goes to him and says: ‘Give me (a charity), he will fill one’s garment with what one needs.’ (At-Tirmidhi)

4- The Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) said:

Al-Mahdi will be of my stock, and will have a broad forehead, a prominent nose. He will fill the earth with equity and justice as it was filled with oppression and tyranny, and he will rule for seven years. (Abu Dawud)

Have We Prayed Today?

How hurt is our heart when someone calls us arrogant people? Then what if God himself calls us full of pride? Yes, Allah calls those who rarely pray or make du'a as arrogant people. Has he felt enough so that he no longer needs to raise his hand to God? Does he feel he no longer needs His helping hand, so not bother to pray? At least that is the principle that I can contemplate from the morning study of Ustadh Umar Muhsin Hafidzahullah at the Ali bin Abi Talib Mosque this morning. My soul flinched. My heart was touched and began to probe into the soul. How often I ignore to make du'a. When the prayer was over, I chose to stand away instead of dhikr and praying. I feel I have forgotten the power of prayer. Maybe the difficulties, anxiety and pain that we have felt all this time are because we have never fully rested our souls on God. No longer has he ever worshiped Him. No longer you want to raise your hand with all your heart. I once read the name of a Salaf who said that he prayed on a trivial matter, including when his sandals were broken off, he prayed to Allah to replace the sandals with new sandals. This is not a trivial problem or not like our prayer. This is the problem with our servitude. With that prayer, we have bound our souls to God Almighty. Yaa Mujib ya Sami, 'inspire me to always worship You.

To Give Up Or Not to Give Up?

Sufian Salim Dramé

28 December, 2019

Does anyone still encourage this smart boy don't give up?! We are always hearing the saying "Never give up!" People say "You only fail when you stop trying." They also say: "Practice makes perfect." Like my friend always likes to tell me: "Fake it until you make it." But what does it mean to don't give up on something which you can't achieve?! No doubt that a wonderful and sweet success is celebrated after a long walk and hard work or even after many failures. No doubt that "Rome wasn't built in a day".

But you must learn when and on what to not give up on.

No need to keep watering a tree which will not bear fruits. No need to keep caring for a tree which can't give shade. Keep trying something doesn't mean anything when it results in the same thing. Prophet Nuh preached and called his people patiently for not less than 950 years. However when Nuh recognized that the number of believers was not increasing, and the problems had become saturated, then Allah Almighty revealed to Nuh that there was no further need to call them. The Qur'an states: "It was revealed to Nuh that no more of your people, other than those who already believe, will ever come to believe. So do not grieve over their deeds." (Hud 36-37) When the game is over, it's over. Move on and be ready for another game. Is not giving up, but to simply change the direction.

“All Roads Lead to Rome”

For me, the real meaning of the word "failure" is to have never tried. "The world will not be destroyed by those who do evil, but by those who watch them without doing anything," famously said Albert Einstein. The most important thing is to try. By trying we always gain and learn something. We win and create an unforgettable souvenir. Or fail and learn lessons. Pierre de Coubertin quotes: "The most important thing in the Olympic Games is not to win but to take part."

When Allah closes a door, He opens a thousand other doors".

So stop wasting your priceless time by knocking on the closed door. If God closed His door, please stop knocking on it. Go knock on the next door. Move forward and start something new! Believe me, your life is much bigger than a single experience! At the end of the day, you will realize that success belongs to those have chosen the right battles rather than being the good fighters. Never, never, never give up. But get to know what and when to change direction Thanks for not giving up on reading until the end. See you then at the next door.
